Dear Mr. Wood:

I acknowledge the receipt of your letter of April 11 with want list of foreign stamps.

I have looked these up and regret to say that I cannot furnish the majority of them. A few like the Philippines 801, for instance, is part of a set which I regret I cannot break as it is sold in complete sets only.

I am perfectly willing to try this list with one of my correspondents who may be in a position to furnish some of them in which case it will take about a month for reply. Please let me know whether this is satisfactory and I shall then submit to you any stamps which I shall have obtained in the meantime. In case you are not satisfied to wait a month I shall have to request you to please order the stamps elsewhere.

Assuring you, however, that I am perfectly willing and glad to attend to this provided you are willing to wait, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

and

Dear Mr. Klein:

Your letter of April 15th at hand. Send on or let me know the price of any of the stamps you might have on my want list of April 11th. As for those that you cannot furnish right now I will let you know later, as there are one or two others in this country I can write to. Do not bother about Philippines 801. This I can probably pick up right here. The few that are sets I would rather wait for until I can get the whole set, rather than two or three. Thanks for your willingness to cooperate. I remain

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Wood:

I take pleasure in enclosing herewith on approval all the items which I was able to secure for you on your want list which you were good enough to send me on May 8. I trust you will find everything satisfactory.

Hoping to be favored with further orders from you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Klein:

Your favor of June 29th came while I was off on a weekend. I am glad to get the stamps and herewith send a check for $3.70.

I am returning 301 as there seems to be a misunderstanding on this. I thought I had indicated in my letter that I wanted 301 of the regular issue and not 301 of the registered issue. Scott had changed the numbers in one of the monthly journals issued during the winter. I trust you will be able to secure my other wants.

Very truly yours,
